INTRODUCTION

New Jersey has had an inheritance tax since 1892 when a 5% tax was imposed on property transferred from a deceased person (“decedent”) to a beneficiary. Currently, the law imposes a graduated inheritance tax ranging from 11% to 16% on the transfer of real and personal property with an aggregate value of $500 or more to certain beneficiaries. New Jersey first enacted an Estate Tax in 1934. Its purpose was to fully absorb the credit for state estate, inheritance, succession or legacy taxes allowable in the Federal estate tax proceeding.

AMENDMENTS TO AN ORIGINAL RETURN

In the case of both resident and non-resident estates, any assets or liabilities not disclosed in the original return should be reported in the form of a supplemental affidavit executed by the duly authorized representative of the estate, next of kin, or beneficiary. Data submitted should consist of a thorough but concise description of the items being reported, including the fair market value of each on the decedent’s date of death. The supplemental affidavit along with supporting documentation should be forwarded to the Individual Tax Audit Branch - Inheritance and Estate Tax in Trenton.

FORMS, INSTRUCTIONS

Necessary forms and instructions concerning the procedure to be followed in completing an inheritance tax or estate tax return may be obtained at or from the Individual Tax Audit Branch - Inheritance and Estate Tax in Trenton or downloaded from the Division’s web page at www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/.

WHEN INHERITANCE TAX RETURNS ARE DUE

An inheritance tax return must be filed and the tax paid on the transfer of real or personal property within eight months after the death of either:

- A resident decedent for the transfer of real or tangible personal property located in New Jersey or intangible personal property; wherever situated or
- A nonresident decedent for the transfer of real or tangible personal property located in New Jersey. No tax is imposed on nonresident decedents for intangible personal property.

A return must be filed whenever any tax is due or when benefits are passing to other than Class “A” beneficiaries. The return should be filed directly with the Individual Tax Audit Branch - Inheritance and Estate Tax in Trenton.

BENEFICIARY CLASSES and TAX RATES

There are five inheritance tax beneficiary classes ranging from “A” to “E”, as follows:

- Class “A” - Father, mother, grandparents, wife, husband, civil union partner after 2/19/07, child or children of a decedent, adopted child or children of a decedent, issue of a child or legally adopted child of a decedent, mutually acknowledged child, stepchild (includes a grandchild and great-grandchild but not a stepgrandchild or a great-stepgrandchild), and domestic partner after 7/10/04.
- Class “B” - Deleted by amendment 7/1/63.
- Class “C” - Brother or sister of a decedent, wife or civil union partner after 2/19/07 or widow or surviving civil union partner after 2/19/07 of a son of a decedent, or husband or civil union partner after 2/19/07 or widower or surviving civil union partner after 2/19/07 of a daughter of a decedent.

Rate: Exempt from tax in estates of decedent’s dying on or after 7/1/88.

- Class “D” - Every other transferee, distributee or beneficiary not otherwise classified.

- Class “E” - Transfers to the State of New Jersey or any of its political subdivisions for public or charitable purposes, an educational institution, church, hospital, orphan asylum, public library, and certain other nonprofit agencies, etc.

Rate: Totally exempt.

EXEMPTIONS

In addition to the exemptions listed under “Beneficiary Classes and Tax Rates”, no inheritance tax is imposed on:

- Transfers to a beneficiary having an aggregate value of less than $500.
- Life insurance proceeds paid to a named beneficiary.
- Charitable transfers for the use of any educational institution, church, hospital, orphan asylum, public library, etc.
- Transfers for public purposes made to New Jersey or any political subdivision of the State.
In addition to the inheritance tax, the State of New Jersey imposes an estate tax on the estate of any resident decedent. The estate tax is a tax equal to the amount the decedent accumulated during his lifetime. In 2001, the New Jersey estate tax was computed in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code in effect on the decedent's date of death. For decedents dying after 12/31/01, the credit allowable for funeral expenses may be used in determining the taxable estate. The estate tax is calculated at 10% of the gross estate, plus adjusted taxable gifts as determined in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code in effect on 12/31/01. Interest accrues at the rate of 6% per annum on any New Jersey Estate Tax not paid within eighteen months of a decedent's death or within 60 days of the final determination of the Federal Estate Tax by the Federal authorities, whichever is later. For estates of decedents dying on or after 3/1/92, interest accrues at the rate of 10% per annum on any New Jersey Estate Tax not paid within nine months of the decedent's death. The Director of the Division of Taxation may then reduce the interest rate to 6% per annum until the expiration of the Federal extension.

The estate tax is reduced by the portion of the credit which is attributable to real and tangible personal property located outside New Jersey. Intangible personal property is generally considered to be located in New Jersey regardless of its actual location. The reduction permitted is determined by multiplying the tax due on the entire gross estate wherever located by a fraction the numerator of which is the gross value of property located outside New Jersey and the denominator of which is the New Jersey entire gross estate wherever located.

The New Jersey Estate Tax obligation is in no way discretionary on the part of the decedent. The property must be satisfied by payment of the appropriate amount to the federal government. For decedents dying after 12/31/01, a tax return must be filed if the estate net value plus all taxable gifts exceeds $675,000.

For the estates of decedents dying after 12/31/01, the estate tax is a lien on all property of a decedent as of the decedent's date of death and no property may be transferred without the written consent of the Director.

For the estates of decedents dying after 12/31/01, the estate tax return must be filed within nine months plus thirty days after a decedent's death. If the simplified tax system is used, the return must be filed within nine months of the decedent's death.

For estates of decedents dying prior to 3/1/92, interest accrues at the rate of 6% per annum on any New Jersey Estate Tax not paid within eighteen months of a decedent's death or within 60 days of the final determination of the Federal Estate Tax by the Federal authorities, whichever is later. For estates of decedents dying on or after 3/1/92, interest accrues at the rate of 10% per annum on any New Jersey Estate Tax not paid within nine months of the decedent's death unless an extension of time to file the Federal Estate Tax return is granted. The Director of the Division of Taxation may then reduce the interest rate to 6% per annum until the expiration of the Federal extension.

FOR DECEDETS DYING AFTER 12/31/01, PROPER USE OF THIS FORM MAY ELIMINATE THE NEED TO FILE A FORMAL TAX RETURN. HOWEVER, THE FORM L-9 MAY NOT BE USED WHEN, FOR RESIDENT DECEDETS DYING AFTER 12/31/01, THE GROSS ESTATE PLUS ADJUSTED TAXABLE GIFTS EXCEEDS $675,000.00 FOR FEDERAL ESTATE TAX PURPOSES UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE IN EFFECT ON 12/31/01 OR THERE IS ANY NJ ESTATE TAX PAYABLE. THE DIRECTOR OF THE DIVISION OF TAXATION MAY THEN REDUCE THE INTEREST RATE TO 6% PER ANNUM UNTIL THE EXPIRATION OF THE FEDERAL EXTENSION.

A. PERSONAL PROPERTY

1. Waivers are not required for automobiles house- holds, accrued wages or mortgages, but these assets must be reported in the tax return(s) filed.

2. Under current statute, a membership certificate or stock in a cooperative housing corporation held in the name of a decedent and a surviving spouse, civil union partner or domestic partner joint tenants with right of survivorship is exempt from the Inheritance Tax. However, a waiver is required to transfer ownership to the survivor.

3. In the estate of a resident decedent, banks, sav- ings and loan associations, and buildings and loan associations may release 50% of all funds on deposit with them to the proper party to the issuance of a waiver. The full amount on deposit as of the date of death of decedent must be listed in the tax return(s) and will eventually require a waiver. This procedure is referred to as a BLAN- KET WAIVER and is not available for the transfer of stocks and bonds. For a detailed explanation see N.J.A.C. 18:26-11.36.16.

4. A SELF-EXECUTING WAIVER, FORM L-8, has been created for use in the estate of a RESIDENT decedent. This form may be used in most cases to transfer bank accounts, stocks, bonds and bro- kerage accounts, when the transfer is to a Class “A” beneficiary.

Proper use of this form may eliminate the need to file a formal tax return(s). However, the Form L-8 cannot be used for the transfer of real property and tax waivers are required to transfer the realty. However, real property held by husband and wife or civil union partners as “tenants by the entirety” in the estate of the spouse or civil union partner first dying need not be reported and may be transferred without a waiver.

5. A REQUEST FOR A REAL PROPERTY TAX WAIVER, FORM L-9 (RESIDENT DEADLINE) and L-9 NR (Non-Resident Decedent) have been created for use by Class “A” beneficiaries. These forms may be used for the transfer of real property is exempt for inheritance tax purposes and passes to Class “A” beneficiaries and the only reason to file a return is to obtain a tax waiver for real property.

Use of these forms may eliminate the need to file a formal tax return(s).

Form L-9 may not be used when, for resident dece- demts dying after 12/31/01, the gross estate plus adjusted taxable gifts exceeds $675,000.00 for Federal estate tax purposes under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code in effect on 12/31/01 or there is any NJ Estate Tax payable. The form is in order, the necessary waiver(s) will be promptly issued.

NEITHER THE L-8 OR L-9 MAY BE USED WHEN IT IS CLAIMED THAT A RELATIONSHIP OF MUTUAL- LY-ACKNOWLEDGED CHILD EXISTED.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

Safe deposit boxes are no longer inventoried by the New Jersey Division of Taxation. The Division has issued a blanket release in the form of a letter from the Director, Division of Taxation to all banking institu- tions, safe deposit companies, trust companies, and other institutions which serve as custodians of safe deposit boxes. The contents of the boxes may be released without inspection by the Division.
